

11th Annual Copyright Conference

Friday, 17 February 2006

Program

- 9.00-9.30am Registration
Level 22, Waterfront Place, 1 Eagle Street, Brisbane
(Offices of Minter Ellison Lawyers)
- 9.30-10.45am Session 1
Opening Address
The Hon Justice Andrew Greenwood

Professor Pam Samuelson, Professor of Law and Information Management, Chancellor's Professor and Director, Berkeley Center for Law and Technology, University of California, Berkeley
Copyright and Consumer Protection

Helen Daniels, Assistant Secretary, Copyright Law Branch, Attorney-General's Department
An Overview of the Government's Copyright Reform Agenda
- 10.45-11.15am Morning Tea
- 11.15am-12.15pm Session 2
John Nicholas, SC, Nigel Bowen Chambers, Sydney
Title to be advised

Kim Weatherall, Associate Director (Law), Intellectual Property Research Institute of Australia (IPRIA) and Lecturer, Law School, The University of Melbourne
Drafting the Oz-DMCA: The New Anti-Circumvention Law in Australia
- 12.15-1.30pm Lunch
Brisbane Polo Club, Naldham House, Cnr Eagle & Felix Streets, Waterfront Place, Brisbane
- 1.30-2.30pm Session 3
John Tuck, Head of British Collections, British Library
Copyright Issues in a National Legal Deposit Library Context

Chris Creswell, Copyright Law Consultant, Copyright Law Branch, Attorney-General's Department
The Copyright Act: "Looking Forward, Looking Back" (apologies to Slim Dusty)
- 2.30-3.00pm Afternoon Tea
- 3.00-4.00pm Session 4
Richard Mallett, Director Mechanical Licensing, Australasian Performing Right Association (APRA)
Digital Distribution Channels – Threat or Opportunity?

Dr Matthew Rimmer, Associate Director and Senior Lecturer in Law, Australian Centre for Intellectual Property in Agriculture (ACIPA), The Australian National University
Google: Search or Destroy
- 7.00pm Conference Dinner (for those who have registered)
Watt Modern Dining, Brisbane Powerhouse, 119 Lamington St, New Farm